Objects

(a) To provide a valuable service for underprivileged and marginalised groups of people within our community whose lives would greatly improve through the benefit of having accessible, affordable and sustainable transportation;

Membership criteria

Employee Members

9. All Employees on taking up employment with the Co-operative may be admitted to Membership of the Co-operative, except that the Co-operative in a General Meeting may by a majority vote decide to exclude from membership:

12. Membership is not transferable to anyone else.

Applications for Membership

13. Every person who wishes to become a Member must support the aims of the Co-operative and shall deliver to the Co-operative an application for Membership in such form (and containing such information) as the Directors require and executed by them. The Directors shall approve each application for membership.

(iv) The Member is expelled from membership in accordance with these Articles.

Removal of a Member

18. A Member may be expelled from membership by a resolution of the Co-operative stating that it is in the best interests of the Co-operative that their membership is terminated. A resolution to remove a Member from membership may only be passed if:

(a) The Member has been given at least 21 days' notice in Writing of the general meeting at which the resolution to expel them will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed; and

(b) The Member or, at the option of the Member, an individual who is there to represent them (who need not be a Member of the Co-operative) has been allowed to make representations to the general meeting.

- (b) Consideration of Director's and Auditor's reports;
- (c) Elections to replace retiring Directors;
- (d) Appointment and remuneration of the auditor (or their equivalent).

21. In accordance with the Co-operative Principle of democratic member control, the Co-operative shall ensure that, in addition to the Annual General Meeting, at least three other general meetings are held annually. The purpose of these meetings is to ensure that Members are given the opportunity to participate in the decision-making process of the Co-operative, review the business planning and management processes and to ensure the Co-operative manages itself in accordance with the Co-operative Values and Principles.

Calling a General Meeting

22. The Board of Directors may convene a general meeting or, in accordance with the Companies Acts, 10% of the membership may, in Writing, require the Directors to call a general meeting.

Notices

23. The Directors shall call the Annual General Meeting giving 14 clear days' notice to all Members. All other general meetings shall be convened with at least 14 clear days' notice but may be held at shorter notice if so agreed in Writing by a majority of Members together holding not less than 90% of the total voting rights of the Co-operative.

24. All notices shall specify the date, time and place of the meeting along with the general nature of business to be conducted and any proposed resolutions. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of each Member to appoint a proxy.

25. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to or non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate proceedings at that meeting.

Proxies

26. A Member who is absent from a general meeting may appoint any person to act as their proxy, provided that no person shall hold a proxy for more than five Members at any one time in any general meeting.

27. Proxies may only validly be appointed by a notice in Writing which:

- (a) States the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy;
- (b) Identifies the person appointed to be that Member's proxy and the general meeting in relation to which that person is appointed;

(c) Is signed by or on behalf of the Member appointing the proxy, or is authenticated in such manner as the Directors may determine; and

(d) Is delivered to the Co-operative in accordance with the Articles and any instructions contained in the notice of the general meeting to which they relate.

28. The Co-operative may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form and may specify different forms for different purposes.

29. Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or that the proxy is to abstain from voting) on one or more of the resolutions, otherwise the proxy notice shall be treated as allowing the person appointed the discretion as how to vote on any matter.

30. A person who is entitled to attend, speak or vote (either on a show of hands or a poll) at a general meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of the general meeting to which it relates.

31. An appointment using a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering to the Co-operative a notice in Writing given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given. A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or the adjourned meeting to which it relates.

32. If a proxy notice is not signed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence that the person signing it has the authority to execute it on the appointor's behalf.

Quorum

33. No business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of Members is present, either in person or represented by proxy. Unless amended by special resolution of the Co-operative, a quorum shall be ten Members or one-third of the Membership, whichever is the lesser.

The appointment of a chairperson shall be the first item of business at the general meeting.

Attendance and Speaking at General Meetings

35. A Member is able to exercise the right to speak at a general meeting and is deemed to be in attendance when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a general meeting to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it including by electronic means. In determining attendance at a general meeting, it is immaterial whether any two or more Members attending are in the same place as each other.

36. A person who is not a Member of the Co-operative shall not have any right to vote at a general meeting of the Co-operative; but this is without prejudice to any right to vote on a resolution affecting the rights attached to a class of the Co-operative's debentures. The chairperson of the meeting may permit other persons who are not Members of the Co-operative to attend and speak at general meetings, without granting any voting rights.

Adjournment

37. If a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time the general meeting was due to commence, or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the chairperson must adjourn the meeting. If within half an hour of the time the adjourned meeting was due to commence a quorum is not present, the Members present shall constitute a quorum.

38. The chairperson of a general meeting may adjourn the meeting whilst a quorum is present if:

(a) The meeting consents to that adjournment; or

(b) It appears to the chairperson that an adjournment is necessary to protect the safety of any persons attending the meeting or to ensure that the business of the meeting is conducted in an orderly manner.

39. The chairperson must adjourn the meeting if directed to do so by the meeting.

40. When adjourning a meeting the chairperson must specify the date, time and place to which it will stand adjourned or that the meeting is to continue at a date, time and place to be fixed by the Directors.

41. If the meeting is adjourned for 14 days or more, at least 7 clear days' notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as the notice of the original meeting.

42. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business which could not properly have been transacted at the meeting if the adjournment had not taken place.

Voting

43. In accordance with the Co-operative Principle of democratic member control, each Member shall have one vote on any question to be decided in general meeting. This article is entrenched in accordance with section 22 of the Act; any alteration to this article requires the approval of 100% of the Members.

44. A resolution put to the vote at a general meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is duly demanded in accordance with these Articles.

45. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or a poll, the chairperson shall not have a second or casting vote and the resolution shall be deemed to have been lost.

Poll Votes

46. A poll on a resolution may be demanded:

(a) In advance of the general meeting where the matter is to be put to the vote; or

(b) At a general meeting, either before a show of hands on that resolution or immediately after the result of a show of hands on that resolution is declared.

47. A poll may be demanded by:

- (a) The chairperson of the meeting;
- (b) The Directors;
- (c) Two or more persons having the right to vote on a resolution.

48. A demand for a poll may be withdrawn if the poll has not yet been taken and the chairperson consents to the withdrawal.

49. Polls must be taken immediately and in such a manner as the chairperson of the meeting directs, provided that each Member shall have only one vote.

Resolutions

50. Decisions at general meetings shall be made by passing resolutions:

(a) Decisions involving an alteration to articles that have been entrenched in accordance with section 22 of the Act require the approval of 100% of the Members.

(i) Decisions involving an alteration to the Articles of the Co-operative, except where an article is entrenched as detailed above;

(ii) Decisions to expel Members;

(iii) Decisions to dispose of assets of the Co-operative equivalent in value to one third of the Co-operative's last published balance sheet, as detailed in these Articles;

(iv) The decision to wind up the Co-operative;

(v) Other decisions which are required so by statute.

(c) All other decisions shall be made by ordinary resolution.

51. A special resolution is one passed by a majority of not less than 75% of votes cast at a general meeting and an ordinary resolution is one passed by a simple majority (51%) of votes cast.

52. Resolutions may be passed at general meetings or by written resolution.

53. A written resolution passed by Members shall be effective if it has been passed in accordance with the requirements of the Act which includes sending a copy of the proposed resolution to every Member. Written resolutions may comprise several copies to which one or more Members have signified their agreement.

54. A written resolution shall be deemed to have been passed if, within 28 days of the written resolution's circulation date:

(a) Written approval has been received from at least 75% of the Members where the resolution is a special resolution;

(b) Written approval has been received from at least 51% of the Members where the resolution is an ordinary resolution.

57. The initial Board members of the Co-operative from incorporation until the first Annual General Meeting shall be the Subscribers to the Memorandum of Association and such others as they may determine in writing.

58. Only Members of the Co-operative who are aged 16 years or more may serve on the Board of Directors.

Elected Board of Directors

59. The Board of Directors shall be elected by and from the Co-operative's Members. The maximum number of Directors serving on the Board shall be determined by a general meeting of the Co-operative from time to time.

Retirement Cycle

60. At the first Annual General Meeting all Directors shall stand down. At every subsequent Annual General Meeting one-third of the Board of Directors, or if their number is not a multiple of three then the number nearest to one-third, shall retire from office. The Directors to retire shall be the Directors who have been longest in office since their last election. Where Directors have held office for the same amount of time the Director to retire shall be decided by lot. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

61. The Board of Directors may at any time fill a casual vacancy on the Board by co-option. Such co-opted individuals must be Members of the Co-operative and will hold office as Director only until the next Annual General Meeting.

Board Education and Training

62. In accordance with the Co-operative Principle of education, training and information, before accepting a position as Director an individual must agree to undertake training during their first year of office as deemed appropriate by the Co-operative. Such training to include that which provides information on the roles and responsibilities of being a Director of a company which is also a co-operative.

Powers and Duties of the Board of Directors

63. The Directors are responsible for the management of the Co-operative's business and, subject to these Articles and directions given by special resolution, they may exercise all the powers of a company for this purpose. No such special resolution invalidates anything which the Directors have done before the passing of the special resolution.

64. The Board of Directors shall have the power to determine policies and procedures associated with Membership including setting subscription levels.

65. All decisions made by a meeting of the Board of Directors or by any person acting as a Director shall remain valid even if it is later discovered that there was some defect in the Director's appointment or that the individual had previously been disqualified from acting as a Director.

Delegation

66. Subject to these Articles, the Directors may delegate any of the powers which are conferred on them under these Articles to any person or committee consisting of Members of the Co-operative, by such means, to such an extent, in relation to such matters and on such terms and conditions as they think fit.

67. The Directors may specify that any such delegation may authorise further delegation of the powers by any person to whom they are delegated.

68. The Directors may revoke any delegation in whole or in part or alter any terms and conditions.

Sub-Committees

69. A sub-committee to which the Directors delegate any of their powers must conform to any regulations imposed on it by the Directors and the provisions of these Articles. Such regulations imposed by the Directors will prevail over the provisions in these Articles where they are inconsistent.

70. All acts and proceedings of any sub-committee must be fully and promptly reported to the Directors.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Calling a Meeting of the Board of Directors

71. Any Director may, and the Secretary on the requisition of a Director shall, call a meeting of the Board of Directors by giving reasonable notice of the meeting to all Directors. Notice of any meeting of the Board of Directors must indicate the date, time and place of the meeting and, if the directors participating in the meeting will not be in the same place, how they will communicate with each other.

Proceedings of a Meeting of the Board of Directors

72. The Board of Directors may meet together for the despatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.

73. A Director is able to exercise the right to speak at a meeting of the Board of Directors and is deemed to be in attendance when that person is in a position to communicate to all those attending the meeting. The Directors may make whatever arrangements they consider appropriate to enable those attending a meeting of the Board of Directors to exercise their rights to speak or vote at it including by electronic means. In determining attendance at a meeting of the Board of Directors, it is immaterial whether any two or more Directors attending are in the same place as each other.

74. Questions arising at a Directors' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In all proceedings of Directors each Director must not have more than one vote. In the case of an equality of votes the status quo shall be maintained and the Board of Directors may choose to refer the matter to a general meeting of the Co-operative.

75. A written resolution, circulated to all Directors and signed by a simple majority (51%) of Directors, shall be valid and effective as if it had been passed at a Board meeting duly convened and held. A written resolution may consist of several identical Documents signed by one or more Directors.

76. The Board of Directors may, at its discretion, invite other persons to attend its meetings with or without speaking rights and without voting rights. Such attendees will not count toward the quorum.

77. The Directors must ensure that the Co-operative keeps a record, in Writing, for at least 10 years from the date of the decision recorded, of every unanimous or majority decision taken by the Directors.

Quorum

78. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be 50% of the Directors or 2, whichever is the greater.

79. If at any time the total number of Directors in office is less than the quorum required, the Directors must not take any decisions other than to appoint further Directors or to call a general meeting so as to enable the Members to appoint further Directors.

Chairperson

80. Directors shall appoint one of their number as the chairperson to facilitate meetings of the Board of Directors. If they are absent or unwilling to act at the time any meeting proceeds to business then the Directors present shall choose one of their number to be the chairperson for that meeting. The appointment of a chairperson shall be the first item of business at the meeting.

Declaration of Interest

81. Whenever a Director has a personal, financial or material interest, whether directly or indirectly, in a matter to be discussed at a meeting and whenever a Director has an interest in another unincorporated body, firm, partnership or corporate body whose interests are reasonably likely to conflict with those of the Co-operative in relation to a matter to be discussed at a meeting, notwithstanding matters relating to the terms of business of the Co-operative, they must;

(a) Declare the nature and extent of the interest before the discussion begins on the matter;

(b) Withdraw from that part of the meeting unless expressly invited by the chairperson of the meeting to remain;

(c) Not be counted in the quorum for that part of the meeting;

(d) Withdraw during the vote and have no vote on the matter.

Provided that nothing in this Article shall prevent a Director from counting towards the quorum for Board meetings and voting in respect of their own contract of employment or in respect of bonus or other payments to Members.

82. Subject to anything to the contrary in these Articles:

(a) In accordance with (but subject to) the Companies Acts, the Board of Directors may give authorisation in respect of a situation in which a Director has, or could have, a direct or indirect interest that conflicts, or possibly may conflict, with the interests of the Co-operative; and

(b) In authorising a situation the Board of Directors may decide, whether at the time of giving the authorisation or subsequently, that if the conflicted Director has obtained any information through their involvement in the situation otherwise than as a Director and in respect of which they owe a duty of confidentiality to another person, the Director is under no obligation to:

(i) Disclose that information to the Co-operative; and/or

(ii) Use that information for the benefit of the Co-operative; where to do so would amount to a breach of confidence.

Remuneration and Expenses

83. Directors are entitled to such remuneration as the Directors determine. Directors may undertake any services for the Co-operative that the Directors decide:

(a) for their services to the Co-operative as Directors; and

(b) for any other service which they undertake for the Co-operative.

84. Subject to the articles, a Director's remuneration may:

(a) take any form; and

(b) include any arrangements in connection with the payment of a pension, allowance or gratuity, or any death, sickness or disability benefits, to or in respect of that director.

85. Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors' remuneration accrues from day to day.

86. Unless the Directors decide otherwise, Directors are not accountable to the Company for any remuneration which they receive as Directors or other officers or employees or volunteers of the Co-operative's subsidiaries or of any other body corporate in which the Co-operative is interested.

87. The Co-operative may pay any reasonable expenses which the Directors properly incur in connection with their attendance at meetings or otherwise in connection with the exercise of their powers and the discharge of their responsibilities in relation to the Co-operative.

Termination of a Director's Appointment

88. A person ceases to be a Director of the Co-operative as soon as:

(a) That person ceases to be a Member of the Co-operative (unless they are a co-opted Director);

(b) That person resigns from office in writing to the Secretary of the Co-operative, and such resignation has taken effect in accordance with its terms;

(c) That person is removed from office by a resolution of the Co-operative in general meeting in accordance with these Articles and the Companies Acts;

(d) That person is absent from 3 meetings of the Board of Directors during a continuous period of 12 months without special leave of absence granted by the Board of Directors and the Directors pass a resolution that they have by reason of such absence been vacated office;

(i) A registered medical practitioner who is treating that person gives a written opinion to the Co-operative stating that the person has become physically or mentally incapable of acting as a Director and may remain so for more than three months;

(j) By reason of that person's mental health, a court makes an order which wholly or partly prevents that person from personally exercising any powers or rights which that person would otherwise have.

Removal of a Director

89. A Director may be expelled from office by a resolution of the Co-operative stating that it is in the best interests of the Co-operative that their office is terminated. A resolution to remove a Director from office may only be passed if:

(a) The Director has been given at least 21 days' notice in Writing of the general meeting at which the resolution to remove them from office will be proposed and the reasons why it is to be proposed; and

(b) The Director or, at the option of the Director, the Director's representative (who need not be a Member of the Co-operative) has been allowed to make representations to the general meeting.

SECRETARY

90. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Secretary of the Co-operative for such term and at such remuneration and upon such conditions as they think fit. Any Secretary so appointed may also be removed by them.

91. A provision of the Companies Acts or these Articles requiring or authorising a thing to be done by or to a Director and the Secretary, shall not be satisfied by its being done by or to the same person acting in both capacities.

REGULATIONS

92. The Co-operative in a general meeting or the Board of Directors may from time to time make, adopt and amend such regulations in the form of bye-laws, standing orders, secondary rules or otherwise as they think fit for the management, conduct and regulation of the affairs of the Co-operative and the proceedings and powers of the Board of Directors and sub-committees. No regulation shall be made which is inconsistent with these Articles or the Companies Acts. All members of the Co-operative and the Board of Directors shall be bound by such regulations whether or not they have received a copy of them.

93. The liability of Members is limited to £1. Every Member of the Co-operative undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Co-operative in the event of it being wound up while they are a Member or within one year of them ceasing to be a Member.
